"Spread your wings.

Feel the wind.

Live the day."

One morning, I opened my eyes...
and a huge parrot was looking right at me.
“Hello,” he said. “I’m Silvano.
Are you ready for an adventure?”

A man with dark hair, wearing a green t-shirt and blue jeans, is kneeling on one knee. He is holding a large blue and green parrot by its wings. The parrot has its wings spread and is looking towards the man. The background consists of concentric circles of light in shades of yellow, orange, and purple, creating a tunnel-like effect. A speech bubble from the parrot says "Hold on tight!".

Hold on tight!

We flew into a tunnel of light...
faster and faster... until the world changed around us.
